

Financial Institution's Guide to Commercial Appraisal

Wednesday, June 19, 2013
Beacon Grille
400 TradeCenter 128
Woburn, MA 01801
Registration: 8:15 a.m.
Program 8:45 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.

This one-day seminar will provide practical training to personnel charged with administering commercial appraisal function or using commercial appraisals. Commercial real estate appraisal topics to be covered include terminology, regulatory requirements, property valuation techniques, best practices, and common errors. The course material will include a sample compliance review form and considerations in reviewing a commercial appraisal. Upon completion of the seminar, participants will be able to:

- Describe appraisal regulations for federally regulated financial institutions
- Explain institutional responsibilities in the administration of the appraisal function
- Identify the information required to order an appraisal
- Explain the appraisal process
- Describe the three approaches to value
- Identify components of a compliance review
- Recognize common appraisal errors

Instructor: Gregory J. Accetta, MAI, MRA

Who should attend?

Commercial lenders, risk managers, underwriters, and credit officers with responsibilities that include ordering, reviewing or understanding commercial real estate appraisals.

Cost: 295 Members /$395 Non-Members (includes lunch)

CSC: MasterCard, Visa and Discover cards have a 3-digit code that is always the final group of numbers printed after the account number on the back signature panel of the card. American Express cards have a 4-digit code printed on the front side of the card above the number.

Cancellations must be written and received 48 hours prior to the event to receive a refund.

Pre-registered no-shows will be billed.